MRS. COLE DEAD AT WYATT HOME

Aged and Beloved Woman is Called Higher by the Summons of Death.

Mrs. Sabina Cole, daughter of Jacob and Catharine Shively, born Nov. 19, 1825, died Jan. 2, 1909, aged 83 years one month and 14 days. She was united in marriage to John H. Cole, April 9, 1844, who died Jan. 27, 1903, aged 84 years two months and ten days.

To this union were born 11 children, five sons and six daughters, Mrs. Laura Lough, of Taylor Town, Pa.; Mrs. Elva A. Cordray, of Mannington, W. Va.; Lawrence Cole, of Morgantown, W. Va.; Sabina C. Campbell, now deceased, of Smithfield, Pa.; Berkeley Cole, of Tolley, N. D.; Dr. H. J. Cole, of Norfolk, Neb.; J. C. Cole, of Des Moines, Ia.; Mrs. Frances C. Berry, of Wyatt, W. Va.; A. W. Cole, of Morgantown, W. Va., now in Pensacola, Fla.; Mrs. Lida C. Fox, of Mannington, W. Va., and Mrs. S. Belle Wade, of Kingsville, O., all of whom survive except Sabina C. Campbell, who died March 27, 1893. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Catharine Hess, of Morgantown, W. Va., and one brother, Jacob Shively, of Long Beach, Cal.

The children were all married and reared families. There were 67 grandchildren, 62 living; 50 great grandchildren, 44 living. She joined the Christian church at the age of 15 years and had been a consistent and devoted member for 63 years and a great Bible reader.

No better test of Grandma Cole's real worth could be portrayed than by the kind words and helping hands of the great host of friends and relatives ever ready and anxious to do her honor, for which they have the thanks of all the family too deep to be expressed in words. There could be no more devoted wife or loving mother, nor kinder neighbor, whose hands were always open to the needs of the distressed. A lovable woman loved by all who knew her.

W. M. Long, pastor of the Central Christian church, of Clarksburg, delivered a most forcible and appropriate funeral sermon from II Corinthians, fifth chapter and first verse, to a very large and appreciative audience in the Zoar Baptist church near Laurel Point. Bro Long will always be held in the highest esteem by all the family for his kindness and tender words of condolence.

The preparations and burial were in the hands of Jenkins & Brown undertakers, of Morgantown, whose services were of the highest order and satisfactory in every respect, using a concrete vault. She was interred in the Zoar cemetery. The pallbearers were six of her grandsons.

WHITE DENIES SOME RUMORS

Arising From a Brief Interview Given By Him on the Speakership.

Ex-Governor A. B. White has indicated the following letter to the editor of the Parkersburg State Journal, concerning an interview and certain reports.

Editor State Journal:
In your Saturday's issue some local observations are made concerning myself, which I wish had been based upon a personal interview with me, so as to have stated the facts from my viewpoint. Will you please say for me:

(1) I have no wish to be a member of the National House of Representatives and have no intention of becoming a candidate for such honor.

(2) I have no desire to be president of the State University and no intention of permitting the use of my name in that connection. I presume there has been some confusing of my name in this connection by those who have had our eminent state geologist, Dr. I. C. White, in mind, if there should ever be a change in the head of our greatest educational institution.

(3) I have returned to Parkersburg to attend to my somewhat numerous private affairs. You are in error in stating that I had been in the State's service practically eight years, except a "few months". I was in private business life here and in Charleston for considerably more than two years, after I left the governorship in March, 1905. I was tax commissioner some six months longer than intended, owing to Governor Dawson's absence from the State on account of his health, having assumed the duties of that office for a contemplated term of about one year. I am not a candidate for any office, elective or appointive, but in case I should ever become one will frankly and will at once publicly say so. In the meantime I expect to attend to business.

(4) In an interview with a reporter last week I was only asked for an expression of views as to the contest for Speaker of the House of Delegates, and, of course, confined myself to the question asked. But, as some have asked me why I said nothing about the President of the Senate, will you indulge me long enough to say that I heartily and earnestly support our own able member of the Senate—Hon. Thomas Gartlan, for this high honor. This senatorial district never had an able member or one more attentive to his duties than Senator Gartlan. He is a man of rare and discerning judgment, has a keen eye and a clear understanding of the important financial problems of the State, applies his fine training to public affairs and is always "on the job" attending to the duties for which elected. His record as a State Senator has been among the very best. His strict integrity and practical judgment have enabled him to represent the people with fidelity and with results which are desirable and effective. He would make a splendid Lieutenant-Governor, which in effect being president of the state senate is. He has strong support in a divided field and his chances are as good as the next. His quiet, modest, unassuming ways do not keep him in the limelight as much as he deserves. I hope to see him elected President of the Senate.

Very truly yours,
ALBERT B. WHITE,
Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 4, 1908.

Keep Baby Healthy; Free

No child can be well and strong unless its bowels move regularly every day at the same hour. Such regularity promotes good health. One passage is absolutely necessary, while two are not too many.

There is one remedy that is especially adapted to the needs of children, and which thousands of American mothers are using today, and that is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great best laxative compound. Its gentle action, so free from danger, its tonic effects, and its perfect purity, vouches for its safety. The United States Government, makes it an official children's medicine.

Mrs. M. P. Cash, of Webb, Okla., is an old-time friend of this wonderful child's remedy, and she says she could scarcely keep house without it. She became acquainted with it through Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free trial bottle, which she found so effective on her baby that she now always keeps it in the house. Mrs. K. I. Stout, of Louisville, Ky., also first used it in a free sample, then bought it of her druggist at the regular price, which is only 50 cents or $1 a bottle. It cures her little girl a splendid appetite and a vigorous stomach. When Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin once finds its way into the home it makes a life-long friend. They soon discard salts, pills and powders. Those who have never yet used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should begin to do so, for they are missing a valuable household friend. In order to acquaint you with its merits at no expense to yourself the doctor will send you a free test bottle on receipt of name and address. It has been justly called the nation's safeguard to health in the cure of constipation, dyspepsia, heartburn, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and similar digestive ailments.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 615 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. Sold by Druggists, etc.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
